THE SERVICE COLOUR ME MINE

What is it? A unique hair and make-up makeover service at Daniel Hersheson in Harvey Nichols. What happens? Armani Cosmetics-trained make-up artist Lauren Hersheson and Head Colourist Sibi Bolan provide a joint consultation before Bolan creates a shade to complement skin tone and eyes. Next, Hersheson gets going with her extensive make-up kit, giving expert advice on the tricks, techniques and shades that will give a fantastic finish.

What's so special? Bolan is one of the best colourists around and where some companies push one brand, Hersheson uses various make-up lines and can also take you shopping in the store's cosmetics hall. From £70. Call 020-7201 8797.

THE FACIAL RANI MIRZA RED CARPET FACIAL

What is it? The crème de la crème of facials, this two-hour treatment will leave you with an A-list glow.

Who will like it? Celebrity fans of the treatment include Naomi Campbell, left, and Rosario Dawson.

What makes it special? A perfect treat for the party season, this luxurious facial, using Yonka skincare products, below, begins with a double cleanse plus a gentle exfoliation and extraction to remove embedded dirt. You are then given a lymphatic massage, followed by a deep-cleansing mask, before oxygen therapy is administered to plump out fine lines and wrinkles. To finish, a fruit mask is applied while a relaxing hand and shoulder massage is given. Heavenly.

The two-hour facial costs £170 at Rani Mirza Salon, 41 Beauchamp Place, London SW3. Visit ranimirza.co.uk.

THE SPA USHVANI, LONDON

What is it? A luxurious day spa housed in a beautiful period property situated in upmarket Cadogan Gardens, Knightsbridge. Ushvani's philosophy is based on the healing traditions of South East Asia.

Why go? A haven of tranquillity from the moment you step in, Ushvani's traditional therapies are tailored to the client's individual needs. Treatments use the spa's own range of natural products, which are free from chemical nasties and parabens. Make use of the yoga and Pilates classes or simply chill out in the steam room and vitality pool.

What to book The Ushvani signature massage incorporates relaxing strokes derived from Malay massage, deep drainage from Balinese massage and stretches from Thai massage. Combine with a scrub of your choice to leave your body rejuvenated and glowing.

£180 for 90 minutes. Call 020-7730 2888 or visit ushvani.com.
